Press Release: February 2008, Washington, D.C.

We are pleased to report that effective October 1 2010 Global InterMediation[ “GI”], has entered into a joint venture agreement with GibConsult GmbH [“GIB”], a leading German consulting firm with headquarters in Eggolsheim, Germany. Mark Steinkamp, a partner of GIB, has also become as of October 1 2010 a member of GI’S panel of mediators.

The purpose of this joint venture is to increase the use of mediation services of GI within Europe and to provide jointly with GIB consulting services to our joint clients in Europe on the use of appropriate dispute resolution processes to resolve their business disputes

We believe that working in this way with GIB will be particularly timely because of the recent adoption of the European Directive on Mediation and will prove beneficial to GIB, GI and its panel of mediators in Europe.

Mark Steinkamp will also serve as GI’s European representative
